Musical Theatre Audition Workshop with Michelle Kopper Seymour

2 Sundays, June 7 & 14

10am–1pm

Fine-tune audition pieces, craft a professional and effective presentation & develop tools to navigate the "nerves" that arise under audition circumstances.

- Each participant will have many opportunities to work their entire audition.
- Reece Marshburn will provide piano accompaniment.
- Receive feedback on your entire presentation from song choices to how your energy is present in the room.
- Develop tools to have a fun and satisfying audition experience where you bring all your sound, talent, & enthusiasm into the room with you.
- Discussion on presence, professionalism, headshots & resumes as well as what to wear...

Prepare 4 songs (16–32 bars each) with sheet music in your key. Suggestions and feedback on song choices available upon registration.

"Magical things happen in Michelle's class. Her toolbelt of performance techniques, combined with a rare emotional sensitivity, helps singers move from wanting to sing to actually singing to embracing the sheer joy of song. Working in her class has transformed my performance ability. Not only am I twice the singer I was, I also take twice as much joy in it. It freed me." —Justin Jude, Portland's Best Songwriter of the Year, 2007 "

*Early registration ends May 22, 2009. Tuition after 5/22 is $150.
5% discounts are available to PATA members and AEA/SAG/AFTRA Members.

Tuition: $125*

limited to 8 participants

Michelle Kopper Seymour returned to Portland in 2004, after 16 years performing and teaching in NYC, with a passion for teaching and a strong commitment to the artistic process. Michelle is the owner of Vanport Square Studio where she combines 25 years as a professional actor/singer with over a decade of yoga & dance meditation to bring unique insight to her classes and workshops.

Michelle is a certified teacher of both Rasa Yoga and The Nia Technique. Breath, movement & sound are an integral part of all her work. Michelle also teaches the Summer Teen Musical Intensive at Portland Center Stage.

"This workshop will tap into your conviction, passion and enthusiasm to develop your ability to access your full authentic voice in the audition setting. It is a unique opportunity to be thoroughly and marvelously prepared to actually enjoy the audition process." —Michelle
